

We've all gone MAD

A sunny day

It's my stride

I'm excited to start the day

Today we'll be learning about

Evolution

I've been waiting for this

I want to be a biologist

I get to class

But something is different

Something feels off

HHHA HHHHHA HHHHHHHA HHHHHA HHHHA HHHHA HHHHA.

There is no subtlety, The whole of the Planet is Watching Lives be, lost, be taken, It's already happened

You can't be scared of your parent's mortality if you have been made forever mute.

You can't be scared to bury your children before you if you've been silenced.

If your whole house has been silenced, your whole apartment structure and city lies quiet.

This is a defining silence that blinds the mind, if there was anyone within earshot

God will not be with us, the rapture taking all, indiscriminate

The earth lies still tonight.
